parliament has voted to reject Charles as king of Hungary according to a Budapest despatch to the Ahtuhr Abendblatt.

Charles Falls.

Paris, April 2—Charles, of Hapsburg, once more a "king without a country," having failed utterly in a spectacular attempt to reestablish himself on the throne of Hungary, was still the center of interest in Europe today but his movements were no longer watched with alarm, for all danger of any considerable part of his former subjects recognizing him as their ruler seemed past.
His main concern, at the present hour according to all despatches, is to hit upon a safe route out of central Europe and a safe place to go to and stay.Despatches early today, had it that he was returning to Switzerland, despite reports that the little mountain republics government considers he has forfeited the right to its hospitality. The East European agency's Budapest correspondent telegraphs that the ex-monarch accompanied by two British officers has left Szom-bathely, near the Hungarian frontier, and is heading for Switzerland.He has not signed the act of abdication, however, tele despatches add.
The Matin's Geneva correspondent says Charles is expected back there today.An earlier despatch to the Central News, from Vienna, dated today, said the former emperor's departure was delayed till this evening, possibly till tomorrow, negotiations regarding his traveling costs being still in progress.
This despatch added whether he would return to Switzerland by way of upper Italy, or whether he would go to Spain, by way of Genoa.A number of Austrian politicians all "royalists" are expected to accompany Charles.
A later despatch from Vienna says Charles had refused to accept the conditions imposed by the Swiss government for letting him return to Switzerland and that he is now negotiating with Spain to give him refuge. The despatch added the ex-emperor would leave Hungary either this evening or early tomorrow.NEW REVENUE LEGISLATIONDesigned To Keep Up Tax Income of Government.TENTATIVE DRAFT OF BILL SUBMITTEDSecretary of Treasury Gets It from State Leaders.Main Features of the Proposed Taxation Program Are Given in Outline by Senator Smoot, of Finance Body.Washington, April 2—New revenue legislation designed to keep the government's tax income up to $4-000,000,000, began to take definite shape, today, when Secretary of the Treasury Mellon received from senate leaders a tentative draft of a tax-revision measure.After a conference upon the proposed tax changes with Secretary Mellon and Government Actuary Joseph McCos, the main features of a proposed program were outlined by Senator Smoot, of the senate finance committee to include the following:
"Imposition of a straight sales tax of one-half of one per cent upon practically all sales by manufacturers and merchants, repeal of the excess-profits tax and a scaling down of the higher surtaxes to a thirty-two-per-cent bracket."Senator Smoot asserted that the proposal for a sales tax of one-half of one per cent will raise for the treasury $1,250,000,000 and possibly in excess of that figure.
The aim of senate leaders Senator Smoot said, is to readjust the tax law so that the wealthy will not find it possible to escape liability to the government by investing their funds in tax-exempt securities."By bringing the higher surtaxes down to thirty-two per cent, the rich will not have the temptation to place their billions in bonds that are not taxable," Senator Smoot said. "The government must get its share of the taxes from this source. That is not now possible, through the retention of high surtax rates that drive millions into tax-exempt investments of all kinds, mainly government bonds."

AN AGREEMENT

General agreement was said to exist after the conference that not only must the excess-profits tax be repealed, but that taxes upon scattered groups of so-called luxuries must be repealed.
This huge mistake of attempting to raise government funds by taxing ice-cream cones that the children buy must be remedied at once said Senator Smoot.
"Placing taxes on such luxuries which are in fact a real necessity to a great mass of the people is unjust and such a method of raising revenue is now shown to have been a failure. The amount collected from so-called miscellaneous luxuries

COMING TO AMERICAProfessor Albert Einstein started the scientific world last year with his discovery of a "relativity" basis which revolutionized all hitherto accepted theories on the subject.
Scientists in England, France and America have since corroborated his new doctrine. Einstein has been attacked by his German colleagues for "hobnobbing" with English scientists.
So violent became these attacks that he announced his intention of leaving Germany and making his home in Holland. Professor Einstein is now on his way to America.

TONS OF EXPLOSIVES IN CHICAGO BUILDING WRECKED BY BLAST

At least eight persons were killed more than one hundred injured and many buildings badly damaged in Chicago when an illicit fireworks factory in the West Side tenement district blew up. According to the authorities at least a ton of explosives were consumed in the blast. The plant in which the explosion occurred was totally destroyed and windows were broken for a radius of a mile. The shock was felt throughout Chicago. The police report that fireworks were being manufactured in the destroyed plant in violation of the law. The photo shows firemen and police searching the ruins of the destroyed factory for victims.

PRESIDENT TODAYDiscuss International Problems To Be Met—President Also Receives Myron T. Herrick.Washington, April 2—President Harding today, conferred with George Harvey, who has been announced as the next United States ambassador to Great Britain.Colonel Harvey said that he had discussed with the president some of the international problems with which he would have to deal as ambassador to Great Britain. He later conferred with Secretary of State Hughes.Colonel Harvey announced that he would spend much of his time in Washington, "learning not to talk," prior to his sailing. The date of his sailing is to be fixed by Secretary Hughes.

Appointed Ambassador.

Washington, April 2—Definite announcement of the selection of Colonel George Harvey, of New York, to be ambassador to Great Britain was made at the White House today. The choice, which is understood to have been determined upon some time ago, was made known formally as an incident of Colonel Harvey's visit here to confer with the president. It was understood that he had been summoned by Mr. Harding to talk over details of his mission at the Court of St. James.

To Make Inquiry.

Washington, April 2—The state department will make inquiries of France as to whether Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, will be acceptable as ambassador to France from the United States. It was learned, this afternoon following a conference between the president and Mr. Herrick.Mr. Herrick refused to state whether he had been tendered the post as ambassador to France, stating that this was a matter for the president to decide.The White House refused to make any announcement concerning Mr.
Herrick's probable appointment.
Mr. Herrick stated that he expected to remain in Washington for a time and would confer with Secretary of State Hughes.

May Name Baker.

Washington, April 2.—President Harding is expected, today, to make a formal appointment of W. E. Baker of Elkins, West Virginia, as district judge of the federal court in the Wheeling, West Virginia, district.Attorney General Daugherty recommended Baker for the post, today, and urged that the appointment be made so that the new appointee may sit at a session of the court when it opens Monday.PROTECTION IS DEMANDEDAmerican Makers of Diesel Engines in Drive.MAKING APPEALS TO CONGRESSMENBusiness Being Ruined Under Present Tariff Laws.Parts of Engines from Foreign Workshops Admitted Free of Duty—Can Not Compete with the Foreign Labor.Washington, April 2—American manufacturers of Diesel engines used generally on steamships, today made a special drive on congressmen to protect them against the lower cost of foreign made Diesel engines.
It is claimed by the American manufacturers that unless the importation of these engines can be cut off or greatly restricted enough of such engines will be brought into this country in the next six months to equip all American ships that may be built in the next two years.The Underwood tariff law of 1913 contains a provision that parts of ships shall be admitted free of duty.
Rulings have been made by the customs officials and by the board of appraisers, that parts of marine engines come under this heading and must be admitted free of duty.Foreign manufacturers of the Diesel engine are taking advantage of this provision in the tariff law and are shipping the engine, by parts, into the United States in great numbers. So careful are the foreign makers to keep within the law, that parts of the same engine are being shipped on different ships and different times.On arrival in this country of these ship parts, they are gathered up by representatives of the shippers and the Diesel engine is quickly assembled at little cost and sold at prices with which the American manufacturers can not compete.Charman Foreney, of the house ways-and-means committee, continued his drive today to have completed by the opening of congress, April 11, the emergency tariff bill, the anti-dumping bill and the American valuation bill. There is some doubt whether the latter bill will be ready by the opening of congress, but it is probable the three measures will be enacted separately by the house.House Republican leaders want to divide Democratic ranks on the tariff issue and to force the tariff Democrats who voted, last February, for the emergency tariff bill, to support it again.

TO REDUCE WAGESEmployers Seek To Reduce the Wages of Skilled Workers to One Dollar an Hour.Chicago, April 2—Preparations for the taking of a referendum vote of the 58,000 members of the Chicago Building Trades council on a proposal to accept reductions in the scale of wages, were under way today. It is expected that the referendum will be completed and the result announced next Friday.Employers have proposed that the rate of pay for skilled mechanics be cut from $1.25 to one dollar per hour and of laborers, from one dollar to seventy cents per hour. Officials of the building trades council at first refused to accept the cut, but finally decided to submit the proposal to the entire membership.Contractors declare that if the new wage scale is approved by the workmen, new building projects costing $100,000,000 will be undertaken and employment provided for 25,000 builders who are now idle.

To Return to Work.

Boston, April 2—Sixteen thousand men employed in the building trades, on strike in greater Boston since January 19, will return to work, Monday morning, at their old rate of pay, pending arbitration.Early today, the workers accepted the proposition of the state board of arbitration to return to work at the old wage rate of one dollar per hour, pending further conference.The men struck as a protest against a ten-cent-an-hour wage cut.
It is believed that settling of the Boston strike will have a powerful effect on similar strikes in Worcester, Springfield, Lawrence, Holyoke, Chicopee and Woburn, where nearly 29,000 men are out.

A Revaluation.

Columbus, April 2.—Announcement was made, today, by the state tax commission, that it will start next Tuesday, upon the work of revaluing the properties of public utilities throughout Ohio, as of 1921, for taxation purposes. The work is expected to continue for three months, or until all these properties have been revalued.

No Restrictions.

Washington, April 2.—No restrictions are in effect on the purchase and sale of foreign exchange in Fel-land, American Consul Davis at Helsinki today advised the department of commerce. The message stated that erroneous reports had been widely circulated to the effect that restrictions upon foreign exchange had been restored.TWO QUESTIONS ARE ANSWEREDViviani Learns Something of American PolicyGERMANY RESPONSIBLE FOR HORRORS OF WARMust Pay Obligation to Fullest Extent of AbilityUnited States Expects Allies To Meet Financial Obligations in Full—No Thought of Wiping Debts from Slate.Washington, April 2—On two broad questions of international policy the attitude of the Harding administration after a day's conference with M. Rene Viviani, France's special envoy to the United States.One of these is that the United States will stand solidly on the principle that Germany was responsible for the horrors of the World war and that she must pay for it to the full extent of her ability.The other is that the United States has finished playing the role of a financial benevolent big brother to the whole world and is now beginning to take stock of her assets. Looming large among the assets are debts aggregating some $10,000,000,000 which European governments owe the United States and which they have as yet given no indication of paying.M. Viviani has been told, it is understood as politely as possible that if there has been any hope on the part of France or other European countries that these sums might be forgiven or that the international ledger it had lost be forgotten quickly. He has been further informed, it is understood, that the quickness of these debtor nations get their obligations on some sort of a sound fiscal basis, with regular interest payments the better it will please the United States.In return M. Viviani, it is said, has been able to assure the United States that so far as France is concerned, there is full recognition of the debt owed the United States and that it is the desire of his government to undertake the liquidation of the $1-000,000,000 just as soon as she is financially able to do so. That France will not be able to do so until Germany can be forced into paying her reparations settlements has been impressed drawn by those who have talked with the French statesman.When Viviani has been assured that the United States will stand squarely behind her late allies in their efforts to extract payment from Germany, he has not been assured so far as is known, that the reparations amount set by the allied principles is necessarily just.The amount notified upon at Paris and London, before the advent of the Harding administration, was characterized by such students of international finance as Norman Davis, former under-secretary of state as excessive and beyond Germany's ability to pay and at the same time maintain her economic equilibrium.
It was freely predicted by officials of the old administration that Germany never would pay the amounts lacked.Whether such a belief is held by the officials of the Harding administration has not been made clear.
The question of "how much" the Harding administration thinks Germany is capable of paying is one which M. Viviani would like very much to have answered.The series of conferences which has kept the French statesman busy since his arrival here were broken off today and he went to New York, where he will be the honor guest at several functions.M. Viviani will return to Washington, tomorrow or Monday, for a dinner, Monday night, at which all of the members of the senate foreign-relations committee will be present.

sentatives of officials and employees of today. "The white collar man has to make up to the fact that only through organized effort and trade-union tactics can he hope to secure the equal material advantages and working conditions with the mechanic and the carpenter."The question of wages will be one of the important subjects discussed at the convention. Rosenmund announced.

"We are working," he said, "to evolve some progressive system of arriving at an equitable rate of pay for the men of our calling. At our convention some effort will be made to work out such a system based on the cost of living with certain other variable factors which would have to enter into the question to place the entire proposition on a scientific basis. It is a lamentable fact that in fixing the wages nothing has ever been attempted in the way of research to establish a scientific standard."The "open shop" movement will also have the attention of the convention. The union will plan a nical workers employed by the rail-

WILL PUNISH CITY OFFICERS

For Failure To Enforce Ohio "Dry" Regulations.

MAYORS IN FIVE CITIES ARE WARNED

Laxity in Enforcement in Three Other Municipalities Reported—Probe in Ohio.

Columbus, April 2.—That officials in two cities are facing removal from office by Governor Davis for failing to enforce "dry" laws, that mayors in five cities have been warned to enforce the "dry" laws, that conditions in three other cities were found to be "serious," that there was laxity of enforcement in another two municipalities, that a fair degree of enforcement was discovered in eight cities, and that in only three municipalities was the work of local officials designated as "good," are claims made in a statement issued from the governor's office today.

This statement summarizes conditions unearthed by State Prohibition Commissioner Parker and his staff in nineteen Ohio cities.

Announcement was made that only an immediate change of front on the part of the officials in the two cities, the identity of which is withheld, involving strict suppression of the liquor traffic in their respective communities will prevent their removal. Collection of evidence against these officials, it is said, has started. This evidence is to be used in removing them from office, if they do not see that trafficking in liquors is stopped quickly.

There is every indication that local officials are becoming more active in enforcing the Cripple act, said Commissioner Parker. "The organization of local enforcement police squads for the specific purpose of keeping Cripple act violators down to a minimum is highly desirable. In this way, it will be but a short time until liquor law breaches will be reduced to the vanishing point," continued Commissioner Parker.

He urged local organizations to insist upon law enforcement by their local officials and to aid his department in securing evidence against any city officials chargeable with "misfeasance, non-feasance, malfeasance, wilful neglect and failure" to enforce the prohibition law.

He pointed out that frequenters of speakeasies are being subpoenaed by his men to provide necessary evidence and that their punishment for perjury will be sought where they refuse to tell the truth.

"With the governor's assurance that he will rid cities of dishonest and lax officials, our inspectors are instructed to get evidence of law violations and of official laxity, no matter in what quarter," declared Commissioner Parker.

CITY IN BRIEF

Attends Springfield Meeting.—Charles L. Justice, chairman of the legislation committee of the Ohio Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias, returned last night from Springfield, where he attended a joint meeting of his committee and the Grand lodge trustees.

Many Are There.—The members of the Women of Mooseheart legion, the Moose and their families and friends enjoyed a box social in the lodge hall, Friday night, about 120 being in attendance. During the evening the newly-organized Moose head rendered a program and dancing was enjoyed, while Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith contributed a vocal and instrumental duet.

Attend Kenton Funeral.—Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ritzler of Green Camp, Mrs. F. E. Dowell of Chase street, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brady, of York street, Friday attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Jacob Sherman, at Kenton. Mrs. Sherman had lived here a number of times. She was seventy-one years of age and died Wednesday morning from pneumonia. She is survived by five children.

Woman Taken to Asylum.—Mrs. Jennie Platt, wife of Harry K. Platt, of No. 151 1/2 north Main street, this afternoon was taken to the Columbus State hospital. Mrs. Platt was adjudged insane at a hearing conducted at her home by Probate Judge L. B. McNeal. Her illness followed frequent attendance at revival services, according to the testimony.

Will Open Office.—W. B. Hartman, of No. 226 Summit street, local representative of the Stroud-Michael company, Maunfield, is to open an office over the Marion theater within a short time. Mr. Hartman has been handling the company's line of electrical appliances for nearly a year and will have a display of the articles at his office.

Two Fire Alarms.—Two fire alarms were turned in at the noon hour today. At 11:45 o'clock, department No. 1 responded to a call to the home of Hector B. Young on Kensington place, where it was found a chimney was burning out. Ten minutes following this call, department No. 2 responded to an alarm and went to the home of John J. Tron, No. 425 north State street. The bottom of a can of tar came out on a gas stove and caught fire, burning some of the paper off. The firemen extinguished the blaze with chemicals and the damage was slight.

Mouser Succeeds Armstrong.—R. W. Armstrong, deputy superintendent for the Metropolitan Life insurance company in this city the past nine years, has received a splendid promotion which takes him to Lima as one of the company's district superintendents. Mr. Armstrong will have his offices in Lima and expects to make that city his home. He will leave Monday to take charge of the work there and Mrs. Armstrong will join him later. For the past eleven years Mr. Armstrong has been with the Metropolitan company and the good service he has given has merited him promotion. Charles R. Mouser, who has been with the company here for the past five years, will succeed Mr. Armstrong as deputy superintendent.

His Big Success.—The second night of the "Garden of the Shab" musical comedy presented by the two clubs of the Hardin High school, was as successful as the premiere. As the students played before a packed house. The affair went off more smoothly than the first night and was indeed a success. The profits derived from the play, which it is believed will be shipped to the "Queen" of the "Garden of the Shab" will make possible the production of a bigger and better school paper. Consequently it is believed that the students will take part in the play and their supporters, Miss Sara Taylor, and Miss Emily Cunningham by the school.

P. R. Cunningham.—Comptroller of the city, arrived in Marion Friday evening for a brief visit. Mr. Cunningham expects to start for Washington tomorrow. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Cunningham and their daughter, Miss Norma Ruth Cunningham.

Frank Stewart.—Residing north of Kirkpatrick, underwent an operation this morning at the City hospital.

DEAN OF SCHOOL SHOT TO DEATH

Victim of Syracuse Instructor, Who Kills Self.

SHOOTING AT THE SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Believed Dean Is Killed While Trying To Prevent Suicide of a Teacher.

Syracuse, New York, April 2.—Herman Wharton, dean of the school of business administration, of Syracuse university, was shot and killed today, by Holmes Brockton, an instructor and head of the eligibility committee of the same school, who then ended his own life with a bullet.

The shooting occurred at 9:45 o'clock, this morning, in one of the private rooms of the school of business administration.

The theory advanced by Chancellor Day, of the university, and by Frank Malpass, Onondaga county district, is that Brockton was discovered by Wharton in the act of committing suicide and that Wharton intervened, being shot himself in the struggle that followed.

Brockton is said to have been unpopular with university students and it is claimed a petition was being circulated in the student body asking that no reappointment contract be tendered him for next year.

COSTA RICA, COUNTRY OF "LITTLE LANDERS"

Development of Costa Rica in Limited Territory.

ITS BORDERLANDS ARE PRACTICALLY DESERTED

There Are No Big Estates. More School Teachers Than There Are Soldiers.

Washington, April 2.—Costa Rica, maintained in press despatches as involved with Panama, in the latest Central American boundary dispute, is described in the following bulletin issued from the Washington headquarters of the National Geographic society:

"Costa Rica constitutes one of the best demonstrations to be found among the republics of the new world that a country's development may be strikingly affected by geography and economics. Most of the other Latin American countries were built up on the basis of the labor of large numbers of natives, and with this assistance they have utilized considerable areas. Costa Rica has had to depend since colonial times largely on the labor of its colonists of European descent, and the development of the country has been a restricted territory. In most of the other Latin American countries there has been a marked admixture of the blood of the Spanish settlers with that of the native Indians, but since the few Indians in the part of Costa Rica settled by the Spaniards were practically exterminated at an early date, the population of that Republic has remained predominantly European."

"Because of these fundamental economic differences, and because also of geographical isolation for a long period, Costa Rica differs in many ways from its neighbors. The republic is more than twice the size of Belgium and approximately equal in area to West Virginia, but practically the government is that of the people concentrated on a mountainous plateau in the center of the country, not more than fifty miles from the sea. The great majority of the half million people live on this small plateau. Not in importance are the country and its added to this central area would make a narrow band across the country from Atlantic to Pacific. Even this belt of concentrated population constitutes hardly a quarter of the area of Costa Rica. The regions bordering Nicaragua on the northwest and Panama on the southeast are almost entirely deserted except for the few Indians living there."

"The central plateau which is the heart of Costa Rica has a rich soil and a climate described as that of perpetual spring. It is from 2,000 to 4,000 feet above sea level. When the early settlers established themselves in this promising country they could not live in cities and receive the tribute of many workers, but found it necessary to do their own work. Their situation was not unlike that of the North American pioneers of the Middle West. As a result of the Costa Ricans acquired habits of industry that have stuck with them until today."

Lacks Hugo Bolanos. "Costa Rica has always been a country of 'little landers' as contrasted with the countries of huge estates about it. The early colonists had a most difficult time making a living in their isolated position. They were cut off from commercial intercourse with the Atlantic by the lowland jungles to the northeast, and less especially by mountains and upland plains from the Pacific. They had no products sufficiently valuable to export even if commercial channels had been available. It was necessary to live almost wholly on their own products. They became poor, strictly, and the name of Costa Rica, which means 'Rich Coast,' came to be regarded as a joke."

"The introduction of coffee early in the nineteenth century had much to do with bettering the country's prosperity. A cart road from the plateau to a Pacific port was constructed in 1845 and coffee exports grew steadily. The Central Plateau became more and more densely populated and now almost every square foot of it is devoted to small farms. A high percentage of Costa Ricans are land owners. Naturally, this has made for comparative stability in government, and Costa Rica has had fewer civil wars than most of the Central American governments, but it has not been altogether free from military coups."

More Teachers Than Soldiers. "In the last thirty years especially Costa Rica has shown great development. The poverty-stricken country of early days has been transformed into one of great prosperity. A great banana industry has sprung up in the hot moist Atlantic lowlands. None of the fruit was exported a quarter century ago, now more than ten million bunches are sent out each year, mostly to the United States."

"But it is of the social advance that has been made along with the coming of prosperity that Costa Rica has the best right to be proud. Isolation and poverty had imposed a high rate of illiteracy a century ago. Now literate persons are difficult to find, except among the few semi-civilized natives of the outlying regions. Newspapers go into practically every home in the plateau. White Costa Ricans have a standing army that is small, and Costa Ricans claim that in recent years they have had more school teachers than soldiers."

Germany Makes No Peace Proposals to America.

AN OFFICIAL DENIAL MADE

Germany Would Have America as Friend in Dealing with the Allies Touching Reparation.

Berlin, April 2.—The German government denied officially today, that any actual negotiations have been in progress between it and the United States government, looking to the resumption of peaceful relations between the two countries.

Official acknowledgment was made, however, that there has been an informal discussion between Foreign Minister Simon and Loring Drexel, the American charge here. It was further conceded that in these conversations with the American representative, American demand for the next reparations conference was solicited and that this request was accompanied by the submission of a memorandum which has been forwarded by Drexel to the state department.

Funeral Will Be Held at Agosta Monday.

A BOY HELD UP EARLY LAST EVENING BY NEGRO

Who Threatens To Shoot—Gets Twenty Cents.

Report was made to the police this morning that Vernon Williams, aged ten years, who resides on Elm street, was held up by a colored man about 6:30 o'clock Friday evening at the junction of Church and Baker streets. The colored man covered the boy, with a revolver and threatened to shoot him if he made an outcry. The boy carried a purse in which he had over a dollar, and he saved this by dropping it into one of the legs of his trousers. The colored man took twenty cents from the boy which was in his pocket. The boy said he had often seen the colored fellow on the streets and gave the police a description of him.

Carroll county gave $100 with which to buy corn and to date Marion county's donations amount to $10.

A Cut Proposed.

Pittsburgh, April 2.—A cut of 12 1/2 to 20 percent on an hour's committee of the Pennsylvania railroad to its signmen here today, was proposed by the general manager. Signmen now receive eighty-five cents an hour, on the average and the new rate proposed is a twenty-percent reduction for this class of workers.

Switzerland Seeks To Stabilize the Hungarian Government. Conditions Imposed.

Paris, April 2.—Ex-Empress Charles' search for a refuge at the basco of his attempt to restore himself as king of Hungary, was believed to be ended, this afternoon, according to a despatch from Bern, Switzerland, decided, after long hesitation, to extend its hospitality once more to the ex-emperor who violated it by his throne-seeking adventure.

The Swiss federal council, said the despatch, authorized Charles' immediate return to his home in Switzerland. It reached this decision in order to make possible the stabilization of Hungary, but it reserved the right to impose, later, certain conditions for the ex-emperor's conduct. Violation of these conditions, it was declared, may lead even to his definite expulsion from the mountain republic.

The decision came after Charles had rejected a set of conditions previously communicated to him and which had prompted him to make overtures to the Madrid government to let him take refuge in Spain. As soon as the council's action became known, the canton of Vaud's notified the council that it would not permit the ex-emperor to return to his home in the canton. He is, therefore, expected to proceed to his mansion in Lucerne.

Washington, April 2.—Women about to break into the field of diplomacy, it appears.

Attorney General Daugherty and Senator Willis, of Ohio, today conferred with the president and Secretary of State Hughes, relative to a diplomatic post, for Miss Lucile Acheson, of Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Acheson served as a relief worker in France during the war. It is probable that she will be appointed as a secretary of an embassy.

Mrs. Dortha Warr, of the ready-to-wear department of the Ulster-Phillips company store, will leave Sunday on a buying trip to New York City.

Hunting the Spring

We are going now on the most wonderful hunt we have yet taken, the hunt for spring. Only the alert and keen-eyed may find the trail for it is early still, but that makes it only so much the more thrilling.

Perhaps you who live in the north have not begun to think of spring though it is high time for February a busy month with her. Even when the snow is still deep and cold winds are blowing, she is stirring things up generally underground, and before you know it all her preparations will have been made and in plain sight sprouts will be up for every one to see.

Now is the time to get into the woods if we would be the first to find her. Look at the trees. Don't you see a change in them? The sap is rising, is how it is sending a warm glow of color to the tips of the branches, notice how it is swelling the buds and coloring them so that they will soon make a brilliant show against the blue sky. The very sky itself seems to have lifted and the floating clouds no longer drag heavily near the earth.

Turn aside a pile of dry leaves, you may find tender, little shoots that have pushed their heads above ground but are still cuddling under the warm blanket of leaves. Down by the brookside there are patches of grass green as the grass of June and in the marsh the hardy tough little smelly, stink-bug-like plants are thrusting up their dark, purple-brown spears.

On the hillside, under the snow, the Trailing Arbutus is making ready to blossom; and warm in their furry coats the Pussy-Willows brush our faces softly as we pass.

Where I live it is the Pussy-Willows.

The girls of the office of the Ulster-Phillips company store enjoyed a dinner and party Friday evening at the store. Music was enjoyed and the evening passed socially. Those present were Misses Laven Smith, Irene Leachman, Janice Miller, Misses Rosalind, Dale Difazio, Zeldia Halldeman and Kathryn Swisher.

The boys and girls bring home in triumph to show that they have been on the hunt for spring and have found it.

YEH, IT'S CLEVER, THIS PICTURE STUNT

Fake Clean-Up Order Keeps Police Phones Busy.

"Clean up your back yard, you are 'Outside the Law'!" is the statement that greeted thousands of Marionites yesterday and this morning when they received their mail. The message was conveyed on postcards and bore the signature "P. D."

"P. D." can't mean anything but police department," was the thought that passed through the minds of a large number of the recipients and they kept the telephone at police headquarters busy with inquiries about it. Many made personal calls and not a few reported their protests with the statement that they were "P. D."

"P. D." it developed, however, in the case stands for the name of a popular motion picture actress and her picture, "Outside the Law," is to be shown at a local theater the first half of the week.

The management of the theater consulted the heads of the police and fire departments before sending the cards out and it was decided that the message, in addition to creating interest in the picture, would also call attention to the spring clean up campaign of the city. Chief T. J. McFarland, of the fire department, stated that a number have already started to clean their yards.

Prospect and Agosta won the first round of debates in the inter-high school contest between six county schools Friday night and will debate for final honors next Friday night. The same rule that applied in the first contest, that of the negative teams remaining at home, will obtain in the final debate.

Pleasant debated at Lakue, Prospect at Pleasant, Lakue at Prospect, Waldo at Mariel, Agosta at Waldo and Mariel at Agosta. Prospect and Agosta each won two decisions. Pleasant and Waldo each lost both debates and Lakue and Mariel each won a decision and lost one. The question was "Resolved, That foreign immigration should be prohibited by the United States government for a period of two years."

While the result of the first debate was determined solely on the decision of the judges, without taking into consideration the number of votes given the various teams, it is probable that the final debate will be decided on points. If this system is used one point will be given for the decision an done for each vote of the judges.

Winning Teams.

THRIFT PAINT
OUR ASSURANCE TO EACH AND EVERY CONSUMER

Thrift Paint is made from the highest, possible grades of raw materials procurable, combined with pure linseed oil and the necessary dryers, and when thinned or reduced with pure linseed oil, as described in our directions will give long wearing, satisfying results.

If pure linseed oil and pure gum spirits of turpentine are used and for any reason the paint fails to give complete and entire satisfaction, we hereby agree to furnish a sufficient quantity of Thrift Paint and the necessary oil to repaint any surface to which Thrift Paint has been applied.

For best results use only pure linseed oil and pure gum spirits of turpentine. Substitutes of any kind, no matter how strongly recommended, will not give satisfaction. If impure thinner or substitutes are used, assurances as to the superiority, wear and service of the paint are withdrawn.

Marion is a Good Town

Every Good Town Needs a Live Flourishing Y. M. C. A.
Marion's Y. M. C. A. Must Have 400 New Members.

A Big One Day Whirlwind Campaign of Well Known Marion Citizens to Secure These 400 Men and Boys Next Tuesday

At least 2000 men and boys in Marion should derive great individual benefit from the things a live Y. M. C. A. can provide for them.

But today our Y. M. C. A. has but 368 members. It's a shame!

This institution with its big, modern, well-equipped building—doing good every day in the year—helping men and growing boys to find clean, wholesome amusement and instruction, cannot possibly exist on such a membership.

The place cannot be run decently, on less than 800 members.

Marion seriously needs a flourishing Y. M. C. A. Such an institution is invaluable to every citizen in the Community.

The thought of allowing as necessary, and important a part, of our modern city life as the Y. M. C. A., to die of "dry rot" will not be accepted by the public.

We appeal to at least 500 good loyal Marionites, to be ready to gladly join the "Y"—when you are solicited next Tuesday.

The life of the Y. M. C. A. depends upon your answer.

The following is the pledge signed and the names of near one hundred of Marion's best men, who will assist in securing the new members.

"Believing in the value of the Young Men's Christian Association, we, as citizens of Marion, Ohio, do hereby agree to devote our services for one day, Tuesday, April 5th, in securing memberships for said association, and hereby subscribe our names."

WHIRLWIND Y. M. C. A. MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

It Will Be Staged Here Next Tuesday.

A STRONG APPEAL
IS ISSUED TODAY

Every Man and Boy In Marion Should Belong to the Association.

Under the caption, "A Community Stroke for the Betterment of Marion," the public's attention for the Y. M. C. A. membership drive which is to staged Tuesday with 400 as its goal, today issued the following strong appeal:

Many men who have the interest of our city at heart are interested in this proposition, as shown by their willingness to help.

The plan is to increase the membership of our Y. M. C. A. 200—which is far below other cities for our size—to 800 in our day. It may seem like a big job, but it can be done. This is vital to the future of our city and to the association. Every Marion man and boy, should be a member, and may expect a call from one of our solicitors, who have so generously offered their time for the promotion of this most excellent and worthy cause, which means much for the future Marion.

As a financial proposition it would be as dangerous to the prosperity of our city to lose or hamper the usefulness of the Y. M. C. A. as to lose one or more of our largest factories.
From this standpoint, alone, every man, woman and child in Marion should be either a member or a contributor to the support of this, the greatest moral force in our community.

Any city that is morally backward, there should not be expected a great deal from, and for that reason, this movement must be not only endorsed and and women, but by every well-meaning, clear-thinking, patriotic Marion citizen as well. We can not afford to be behind other cities of our class in a moral sense.

Following is a pledge signed by practically a hundred of our best men, who will work for the success of this undertaking:

"Believing in the value of the Young Men's Christian association, we, as citizens of Marion, Ohio, do hereby agree to devote our services for one day, Tuesday, April 5, in securing memberships for said association, and we hereby subscribe our names."

her son, H. M. Conger, where ser-Oskar Muther in which he predicts a great war between the United States and Great Britain, has attracted much attention. A great number of people believe, also, that the same opinion is expressed in the Anglo-Saxon pattern. One of the perspective of an ap-defeat such an adversary while she still has the power. This eventuality is an even more plausible when we consider that the Japanese the chance to act at the most favorable moment.England's Interest.

But in spite of all these appearances such as confederation, uniting the Far East and the Japanese against the Americans are for those who know the affairs of the Far East entirely understandable. England's interest would be the antagonism of the Far East would end in the victory of America or Japan. It is certainly not antagonistic for her to let the matter stand as they are and where the conflict can not be settled there is no doubt that a victory by Japan would disturb England far more than if America won. A victorious Japan would be in a position to execute her ambition as "liberator of Asia." British possessions in the seas of the Far East, the Viceroyalties and even in India would be menaced.There are points of other strong reasons preventing England from appearing Japan against the United States. One of the most important of these is the fact that Canada, Australia and New Zealand have taken a hostile attitude toward Japan. The English in China quite strongly favor the British.
Before the war citizens of the two countries carried on hot competition in the sale of Japanese. There was a competition granted one that government of the other. This was because no better that London mittee is to be composed of three senators and three representatives. Lieutenant Governor Brown tentatively in Lake Erie harbors have been up for consideration at former sessions, but have never succeeded in securing enactment. It is hoped to work out a solution of the fishing problem satisfactory to all interests under the

TO REHABILITATE
THE AIR SERVICEWeeks Awards Contract for More Army Aeroplanes.Washington, April 2.—The first important move since the armistice to ward rehabilitating the army's air service was taken when the war department placed orders for 200 Thomas Morse type pursuit airplanes and 35 Martin bombers.The pursuit plane contract went to the Boeing company, Seattle, Wash., and totaled $1,400,000. Secretary Weeks announced. The Martin type bombers were ordered from the L. W.
F. company, Garden City, N. Y., at a cost of $27,000 each.Secretary Weeks said that since the armistice the army air service had deteriorated to an extent that made it imperative that steps be taken to bring it again to the point of efficiency reached at the end of the war. Many of the planes now carried on the fighting lists of army air craft, he said, would be useless in an emergency unless subjected to a long and expensive overhauling.Fleet Reported in Bad Condition.
New York, April 2.—Chargers that the shipping board fleet laid up at Pratt's Island was in a deplorable condition. J. N. Patton, port captain of the board, wrote to George W.
Sterling, district director of the board, and to Rear Admiral Benson at Washington, demanding a public investigation to place the responsibility where it belongs. Various inspections of the fleet, Captain Patton said, showed that the ships were packed so closely together they were in danger of grinding to pieces.

Painters' Wage Demand Refused

Cincinnati, April 2.—Denouncing the demands of the union painters as contrary to the spirit of the times, the Cincinnati Master Painters' associa-

Loses His Roll.

Akron, O., April 2.—George Pusey met two strangers at the Union Na-Pusey to give Pusey the bag. Pusey had but $1,800 in the bank. After some hickering the sharpers agreed to make the deal. Pusey carried the bag home and found it contained old newspapers.

in front of the Orthodox church on Federal street in this city is the most remarkable bread line in the world and the persons in the line are fed from a public kitchen operated by perhaps the most unusual personnel in the world.Both bread line and personnel are drawn from 1,000 Russian refugees of the upper classes, including nobles, diplomats, high officials of the former Russian court, generals, and owners and professors.Speaking of this pathetic bread line Ludmila Lubliner, head of the Russian relief work in Poland says "All of these refugees belong to the 'intelligentsia' or intellectual class which was such a force under the old regime in Russia. Professional men constitute a large percentage of the refugees and they stand in a long queue in the cold and at noon regardless of the weather, awaiting their turn them find occupation there. People who a few years ago were very rich and powerful in Russia now do their best to serve in the dining room, ers and waiters.The kitchen and dining room are under the direction of members of the refugee colony, assisted by the American Red Cross. The manager of the public kitchen is a former adjutant of the Russian Imperial guard.

The manager of the branch kitchen the controller is a count, former master of ceremonies of the Imperial court. As assistants he has a former cabinet minister and a former governor.Among the waitresses, two bear

PLOTTER KNOWN,
DECLARES FLYNNHunt for Authors of Wall Street Blast Being Pressed.New York, April 2.—Agents of the department of justice have known for some weeks the identity of the radical group responsible for the Wall street explosion last September, William J. Flynn, chief of the bureau of investigation declared here. He asserted that it was the same group which had plotted the widespread bombings of 1919 when explosions occurred in Washington, New York, Boston and other cities and the home of former Attorney General Palmer was attacked. Its members are related and some are in foreign lands, according to Flynn. He added that his agents were pressing the hunt for the fugitives.The chief said that some of the radicals had escaped the country as snowbirds. He said that the department's search was being conducted not only in this country but abroad.
Chief Flynn confirmed the report that he had distributed to postman-of New York composite photographs of the man sought as the driver of the death wagon found blown to bits and believed to have contained a time bomb.SALES TAX PROPOSAL IS HELD UNDESIRABLENew Taxes May Be Unnecessary, Penrose Says.Washington, April 2.—Congress may find it unnecessary to provide any considerable number of new taxes in revising internal revenue legislation, Chairman Penrose of the senate finance committee declared. "The tax requirements may not be as large as some people now are disposed to think," the senator said. "The question is being studied by our financial experts and it is entirely possible that the excess profits tax can be repealed without resort to any new taxative laws to take its place."The statement was made during discussion of the proposed sales tax as a substitute for the excess profits tax. The sales tax question, Senator Penrose said, will be the first subject before the senate finance committee at hearings on internal revenue revision, to start immediately after congress convenes.Senator Penrose said there was "strong propaganda" in favor of the sales tax but he and other committee members had yet to be convinced that it is practical or desirable.

Blind Persons Are Forced To Shut Down.Vienna, April 2.—The industries for the blind in this city which formerly made it possible for Vienna's thousands of blind citizens to support themselves in self respect, have closed down because of the shortage of raw materials with which to work.
This has thrown many of the victims into the streets to beg. All sources of public relief having been closed, the blind Viennese this week held a meeting and decided to appeal directly to the blind of America, "who alone can understand and truly appreciate this condition." Their appel is transmitted through George W. Harkman, director of the Vienna unit of the American Red Cross.The appeal, written by Fraulein Theresa Muller, a seven-years-old girl who has been blind since birth, reads, "Driven to desperation by the condition in which we find ourselves, we appeal to you our blind brothers and sisters in America, knowing that you alone will understand and appreciate our situation. We, who have known what it was to live in the dark, our hands useless dependent upon our more fortunate friends, have learned to work, and to take our place in the world again, among those who see. And now our work is taken from us. There are insufficient raw materials for those who have even. Nothing is left for us but to beg again in the streets, as the blind did 100 years ago."You, we know, are now overwhelmed with earthly riches. But we know that you who are our companions in common affliction, will hear our call in your hearts. And it lies in your power to organize some help in your ranks, and intervene on our behalf."We are so very poor that we have to beg for everything—for bread and clothes and money. But most of all for materials with which to work.
"If the blind will not hear us when shall we turn? Help us now and the time will surely come when we can repay in the kindness and love which you will have shown us."Paris, April 2.—The return of Emperor Charles to the throne of Hungary will be the price demanded by the Hungarian government for aid in repelling the expected Holo-koff offensive this spring or summer, according to reliable information obtained here. The attitude taken by the allies toward this request will be determined by the power with which the "reds" launch their offensive and the consequent necessity for large contingents to stop them from overrunning Central Europe.All allies received in Paris agree that the Hungarians will favor the monarchical form of government, disregarding the trend toward democratic governments in nearly every other country on the globe. The reaction that followed the failure of Bela Kuhn's soviet regime shows no signs of waning and the majority of the people seem to oppose republican government at least until Europe's affairs are more settled.Charles continues to be the popular choice for ruler of Hungary. He directs a lively propaganda from his retreat in Switzerland and has a well-built political organization ready to get to work at any time he returns to his former empire.
Only fear of what the allies would do in case he went back to Budapest prevents Hungary from recalling her former ruler. Like Bulgaria Hungary is exceedingly anxious to get back into the good graces of her former enemies in order to reestablish herself economically. They fear that Charles' return without allied sanction would result in the abrogation of the recently negotiated commercial treaty with France and the withholding of arrangements for financial support.

Holding A Husband

BY ADRIAN GARRISON.

Dicky thrust his hands deep into his pockets, a trick of his when he is exasperated, and glared at me. "Well, I'll be cured!" he ejaculated after a long stare to which he cleverly registered unbounded amazement as well as gathering wrath. "So you think I'm about to embark on a skin cure, do you?"

Nice opinion you've got of me, haven't you? Suppose you tell me just what you'd do in the way of restoring this dining room if you were running things. Come in, let's have the benefit of that wonderful business head of yours!"

The mockery of his eyes was intensified by the cutting sneer in his voice. He slashed straight through all the good resolutions I had made to let nothing arouse my temper. "If I were 'running things,' as you so courteously express it," I said icily, "I would call in the decorator who did the room and have him do it over exactly as it was before."

My husband stared at me as if he were seeing me for the first time. "I believe you would," he said at last.

SHE TOOK HER FRIEND'S ADVICE

Now is in the Best of Health Because she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Mich.—"I was not feeling well for several years and never was able to eat any breakfast and always complained of a headache or tired feeling which at times required me to stop my work and rest. I have never had a physician and never took any medicine for it until your recommendation to me by a neighbor whom I used to visit frequently. I took four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I am in the best of health and enjoy doing my work every moment of the day. It surely put life and 'pop' into my system."—Mrs. L. M. DARRAS, 40 Howard St., Detroit, Michigan.

It is not always in business that a woman is forced to give up her work on account of ill health. It is quite as often the woman who does her own work at home. When backaches and headaches drive out all ambition, when that bearing-down sensation attacks you, when you are nervous and blue, the one great help for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

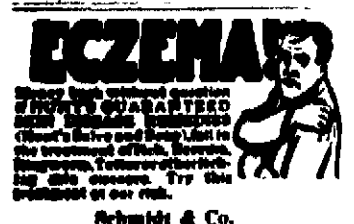

18 EGGS DAILY FROM 20 HENS

500 eggs a month from these 20 hens. That's what Mrs. Henry Youngham, 918 E. 9th St., Erie, Pa., is getting. She says she gets these results because she mixes Pratt's Poultry Regulator in the feed daily. Pratt's Poultry Regulator, mixed with a good egg-making ration, not only makes hens lay, but the eggs wanted for hatching will produce sturdy chicks that will develop into A-1 pullets and cockerels. "AFTER TELLING WIFEY YOU HAD LISTENED TO ME AND STAYED AT HOME"

By Jean Krott

"In that case," I said smiling, "I was determined not to get into an altercation with him, 'perhaps I'd better'."

"Oh, go on! Split it!" he said icily. "I'm not exactly a throtter of free speech, you know."

"Well, then," I said quietly, "I don't agree with you, but I am perfectly willing to abide by your decision—I'd put it that way. After all, it's your affair rather than mine. You conducted the negotiations for the sale of the house. The only part I have in it is the signing of my name, so really—"

"You mean, I suppose," he said unpleasantly, "that you'd like to slide out of all responsibility for any troublesome consequences."

"If you wish to put it that way—"

"I returned frigidly. 'But there's one thing you won't relinquish,' he retorted. 'And that's your membership in the 'I told you so club.' That will be paid up to date, and you'll have the little hammer all polished up and ready to swing on my head if things go wrong.'"

He was fast working himself into a temper and my own nerves were ready to snap so faintly were they drawn. But the striking of the clock which Katie had set going in the kitchen brought me to a realization of the social duties before us. The bride's home-coming must not be marred by a conjugal row on our part. On her account, I did what I have never done before—I played the role of a meek, coaxing wife, when I did not feel the part. Going up to Dicky, I slipped my arm around his neck. "Don't be cross," I said. "There'll be no hammer and no 'I told you so club' kiss me, and then let's hurry and drop."

He held me off from him and looked steadily, quizzically at me until my eyes felt and I felt the hot color mount to my cheeks. "You feel a lot like kissing me," he said mockingly. "You'd much rather exercise that fist of yours. But I never decline a lady's challenge." He clasped me roughly in his arms and kissed me, smiling half-tenderly half-maliciously when he had done so. "Now there won't be any danger of a scrap when the dear bride and groom get home," he said with a comprehending grin.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to keep her Locks Dark, Glossy, Beautiful.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Anyways, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, but what's more, the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair, after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—Adv.

URIC ACID IN MEAT CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority. "The salts which form uric acid clog the kidneys, paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you get rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, swelling, and to seek relief two or three times during the night."

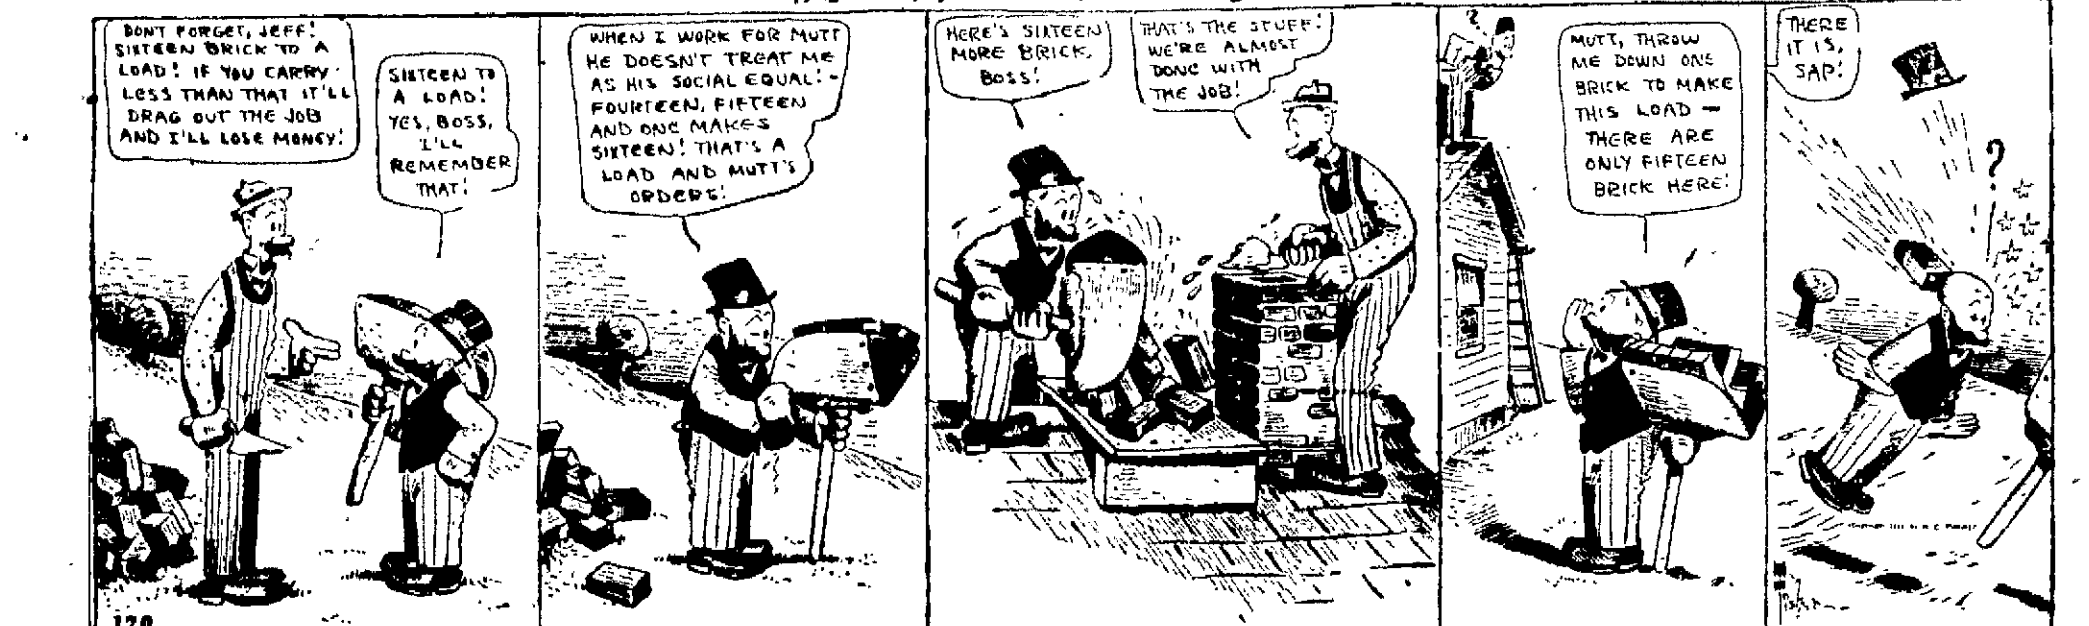

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

JUBILEE'S PARTNER

Illustrations by Judd Mortimer Lewis

I was glad when I woke up that it was Saturday, because a fella likes to have it be Saturday once in a while. If a fella would go to school all the time he would get tired of it. I bet a fella gets tired of it when he goes to school any of the time. All at once Jubilee raised up in bed and stuck his ears up, and then I heard it thundering, and it sounded like rolling a lot of big wooden balls across the top of a lot of bumpy clouds, and maybe that is the way it is done. I expect I will find out some of these days. I hope if that is the way it is done that I will be let do it.

When I had let Jubilee down by the rope in his teeth and had come in from milking the dummed brutes my mother was singing while she was getting breakfast and she said to me: "April showers brings May flowers, and she seemed to feel good about it. It was not raining when I had let and me and Jubilee went around past Younissee house and Younissee mother was working in a little round garden Younissee father had made and she said that she was setting out toolips, and Younissee asked me if I would take care of one if she would give it to me. I said that I would and she put one in a jar with a hole in the bottom and covered it up with dirt, and her mother said if I would take it home and give it lots of water I would get something that would surprise me.

Then I stayed and helped her plant a whole lot of them, and then she let Younissee make some fudge with peanuts in it and then she said to me, "I don't suppose you want to stay to dinner do you?" I said "No." That is a hairy way to set a fella to stay to dinner.

After dinner we all dug some worms and went and set on the dam

It is a good thing for a fella to fall in once in a while and then we can find out how the water is.

French said he fished for sheep-heads at Galveston which is down South once. He said the way to catch a sheephead is to give your line a yank just before it bites. I do not see how a fella can do that. He says they have got teeth like false teeth which they use to crack oysters with. I think he is a fire. If I could catch one I would transe it to crack nuts, and then I could rent it out at Christmas and make a lot of money.

GARIS' BEDTIME STORIES

UNCLE WIGGILY IN THE RAIN.

(BY HOWARD E. GARIS.)
(Copyright 1931, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"Telephone for you, Uncle Wiggily!" called Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzey, the muskrat lady housekeeper in the bunny gentleman's hollow stump bungalow, one day.

"For me? That's nice," said Uncle Wiggily. "Perhaps it is some one calling up telling me where to find an adventure."

But when he went to the telephone, and talked a moment, the bunny gentleman's face suddenly looked sad.

"What is the matter?" asked Nurse Jane. "Are any of the animal children ill?"

"It is Grandfather Goosey Gander," answered Uncle Wiggily. "He swallowed a kernel of corn backward, instead of forward, and Dr. Possum is over there now, trying to pull it out of Grandpa's throat with a buttonhook! I must hop right over and help. Uncle Butter, the goat gentleman, is there. He tried to push the kernel of corn down with his horn, but couldn't!"

Uncle Wiggily was in such haste that he put his tall silk hat on backward—not that this much mattered, for it looked as good one way as the other. Then he hopped out of his hollow stump bungalow.

"Dear me!" said Nurse Jane, looking out of the window after Uncle Wiggily had left. "He forgot his umbrella and it is going to rain!"

And, surely enough, when Mr. Longears was half way to the house of Grandpa Goosey, an April shower came down in pelting drops.

"Oh, ho! I'm going to get wet, I'm afraid," said Uncle Wiggily. But just then he saw a big toadstool growing beside the path, and, picking this, and holding it over his head, he had as fine an umbrella as heart could wish.

Off through the rain, with his toadstool umbrella hopped Uncle Wiggily, and, soon he passed the house of Mrs. Hippy Hoppy, the toad lady. "Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" cried Mrs. Hippy Hoppy, opening her door as the bunny passed. "Please come in!"

"What for?" asked Mr. Longears. "Excuse me, but I'm in a hurry to get to Grandpa Goosey's. He has a grain of corn upside down in his neck—"

"That's too bad," said Mrs. Hippy Hoppy. "But my little boy, Skippy, has fallen down and bumped his nose, and he's crying so hard I can do nothing with him. I thought, perhaps, if you came in and told him a Bedtime Story it might quiet him." "I'll tell him a little short one," said the bunny. "Then I must hop on to Grandpa Goosey's house."

Uncle Wiggily put his toadstool in Mrs. Hippy Hoppy's hall and, going in, told Skippy such a funny little Bedtime Story, about a cow who wore a school bell on her neck, that soon the little toad boy forgot all about his bumped nose and fell asleep.

"Now I'll hop on," said the bunny. But when he went to get his toadstool umbrella, because it was still raining, why, the toadstool could not be found!

husband, you don't mind getting wet? His head for an umbrella. Grandpa Hop out and put a toadstool over his head for Uncle Wiggily." "Certainly, my boy," spoke the toad gentleman. So he picked up the toadstool and larger toadstool for the bunny. And when Grandpa Goosey and his toadstool umbrella did it, saw Uncle Wiggily coming through the rain, holding a toadstool over his head and everything was all right.

FOSTER'S WEATHER

Washington, April 2.—In a ceaseless round and a half circle around the magnetic North pole with a day's delay, averaging 5.5 days, the master of the weather, the positive of nature's part, called the bluff, driving the other half, the negative, the receptive, or female, called the low, the two constituting the storm, across the telegraphic view to the extreme northwest of North America. These two forces are nature's twin born, live and die together. Should the force that produces them cease it would be as disastrous to earth as a heart failure is to human life.

In early part of week centering in April 5 one of these weather makers will appear in Alaska, its warm wave crossing meridian 93 near April 5, its center passing westward a little south of the Great Lakes and reaching the Atlantic near April 10, storm wave will follow and cool wave bringing up the rear guard these weather forces being one or two days apart.

This will be an important storm, closing out the old crop-weather period of about 150 days and inaugurating the new of near the same length. That change will determine the 1921 crops and I expect a fair average will result, as average that will be higher than that of 1922.

I regret that, in these general forecasts, it is impossible to give all the desired details. For that reason I have asked every one to study the causes that I am publishing and thereby become able to assist in their own local forecasts. The valleys, ridges, mountains, rivers, have much influence on local weather and the place where the moisture is to be evaporated is the all important cause of the local good and bad crop weather.

One serious error lies in the reader who ever asks the fact that these forecasts are not for inches of rain nor degrees of temperature, but are for above or below the normal, or general day's and monthly averages of each locality. The reader who does not know the general daily and monthly averages of rain, snow, temperature for his locality is too ignorant to understand anything about the weather. In order to understand it is not necessary for you to have any other help than your own sensation to tell you whether it is warmer or colder than the general average. In like manner you certainly should know the general average of rain.

Severe storms are very important, as they cause the rain, snow, frosts, cold, warm, etc. The storm mentioned in this bulletin will cause more rain and greater extremes of temperature than usual in sections where these have occurred during past five months. But this is the last severe storm that will be controlled by the past weather period. Next severe storm, which will cross meridian 90 during the week centering on April 22, will be controlled by the new weather period which will bring better crop weather to large sections of this continent.

Trouble Solver For Automobile

(If you have any troubles or wish any information about your automobile write to Frederick C. Guerlich, M. E., Stamford, Connecticut.)

Q. I want to grind the valves of my car and adjust them. I was told that they should have a lift of about one-thirty-second of an inch, but when I turned the engine over I found that they had about one-eighth to three-sixteenths of an inch lift. So I left them until I hear from you. Please let me know what should be the proper lift for this engine. B. H. D.

A. You need pay no attention to the lift of the valves, as this is determined by the maker in the design of the cams. It should be all that the cams can give and yet allow the valves to seat perfectly when they are hot and expanded. To adjust the valves have the clearance between the top of the valve tappets—or lifters—and the bottom of the valve stem about .005 of an inch. A piece of fairly heavy wrapping paper will make a good gauge. You should be able to move it between the valve stem and tappet, while a piece of quite heavy wrapping paper should stick. Make the test after tightening the lock nuts, as the back lash taken up by them will change the setting.

Q. I have a 1917 model four-cylinder car. There is a grind in the differential which has annoyed me for a great while, and which the service station has been unable to eliminate. They have tried setting the pinion in the torque arm, but with no result.

I understand that there is a certain amount of grind and hum to all gears, but this grind is very sharp and unusual, and also very startling on the nerves. At one time it bothered me most when it was running in high gear, about fifteen miles per hour.

However, this has disappeared to a great extent. Now bothers me mostly in second gear, when climbing a hill, running at a rate of eight or ten miles an hour. I had a new gear put in about six months ago, and wonder if the pinion is too worn or needs replacing. W. W. W.

A. Assuming that the mechanic got the best setting for the gear and pinion, then the noise is undoubtedly due to the fact that the gear and pinion have not worn into one another as yet. The fact that much of the hum has disappeared would prove this. A new pinion gear would be of little help, as it could have to wear into the ring gear and the chances are that there would be more hum rather than less.

As setting the line of gear and pinion is really nothing more than a case of cut and try, it might be well to have the setting checked up again, as a better setting might be found.

Are you sure that you are not mistaking the hum of the transmission for a differential hum? All transmissions, even those of the highest priced cars, hum considerably in the lower gears.

Q. I have two questions I would like to ask you.

1. What effect, if any, does not having distilled water continually in a storage battery after fifteen months, have? Does not this solution weaken? In putting a new solution in a used battery, what percentage of acid and water would you use?

2. Please explain the course of the electric current coming from the magneto of a Ford, passes through from magneto to the plugs? H. S. B.

A. The action of a storage battery is such that the water is constantly decomposed and escapes as a gas. When you refill with distilled water you simply replace what water has so escaped and so the solution in a quite old battery will not have been weakened unless some of it has been spilled. The acid does not escape as does the water.

Do not pour the old acid out of the battery as it will allow a new acid to be added. The old acid solution will cause a chemical reaction in the hot plates and will cause them to be too hot. The plates will do this, if mixed with the old acid. It will cause the plates to be too hot.

2. The electric current comes from the magneto to the switch then to a box at the bottom of the coil box to the coil. The coil is then connected to the distributor and the distributor to the spark plugs. The current will flow through the metal of the engine to the commutator and return to the coil through the primary wire attached to it. This wire carries both primary and secondary current, but as the two have different times there is no interference.

Q. Will you please publish how I can connect up the wiring of a 1914 Studebaker auto? C. R.

A. The wiring of the model 4 D which was brought out in 1914 is as follows: On the back of the switch there is a panel with lettered terminals. A and B are connected to the speedometer light, C and D, to the horn, E and F, to the tail light, G and H, to one, and I and J, to the other head light. K and L, to a dry battery, M and N, to the generator, O and P, to the indicator, Q, to the terminal; Y, on the ignition coil, and P, to the terminal, G, on the ignition coil, Q and R, to the battery.

In connecting up the generator and battery, care must be taken to have the positive of the battery connected to the positive of the generator. If the generator is not marked, you check this up by throwing on the light switch to see that the indicator is properly connected and shows discharge, then starting the engine and seeing that the indicator shows charge at the higher speeds.

THE NEW HAYNES SUBURBAN

APPRECIATION of the most advanced modern taste in closed cars is expressed in the new seven-passenger Haynes Suburban, the ultra-luxurious, dual type closed car, which affords the distinctiveness of a chauffeur-driven equipage when desired, as well as the congenial family atmosphere of an owner-driven car.

This is accomplished by the lowering of the plate glass partition, making the entire interior a single compartment. The driver's seat and forward division are trimmed in genuine leather; the rear compartment, with its wide, lounge-like seat and roomy auxiliary chairs, is upholstered in fine woolen cloth.

Considered from every angle the new seven-passenger Haynes Suburban is a choice exposition of the highest development of the coach-builder's art.

C. T. ABBOTT, IN CUBA, WANTED AS EMBEZZLER

He's Charged with Making Way with $1,800.

FORMER LOCAL MANAGER OF COOPERTIVE LEAGUE

Develops That Abbott Absconds from Marion Last January. Weds in Columbus.

Claude T. Abbott, former manager of the Marion office of the Cooperative League of America, charged with embezzling $1,800 of the league's funds and $1,700 secured in a stock transaction January 18, is said to have been located at Santiago, Cuba, and efforts are now under way to have him extradited. Ernest G. Wideman, local attorney for the league, has already taken the case up with the state department in Washington.

Abbott came to Marion about a year before the alleged embezzlement. He had previously worked for the league at the district office in Akron and was sent to Marion to establish and manage the organization's office here. The office is located in the Barnhart building on east Center street.

Same Old Story.

It is charged that a prospective investor in the league entrusted approximately $1,700 worth of stock in a local industrial establishment in Abbott's care, with instructions that he convert the stock into cash and invest the money in the league. Instead of investing the funds secured from the sale of the stock, Abbott is charged with embezzling the money, together with approximately $100 of the league funds and absconding.

Some time after coming to Marion, Abbott went to Columbus, where he married a Cuban girl and it is said that the man and his wife are now with Mrs. Abbott's relatives in Cuba. No reason has been advanced for Abbott's alleged embezzlement, as it is said that his wife's relatives are wealthy and Abbott's parents, who live in the South, are also well to do. Affairs of the local office of the league have been taken over by Elton Helwig, of No. 243 Pearl street, who is manager of the league's office in Lima. The league's loss in Abbott's alleged embezzlement is covered by Abbott's bond.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain.

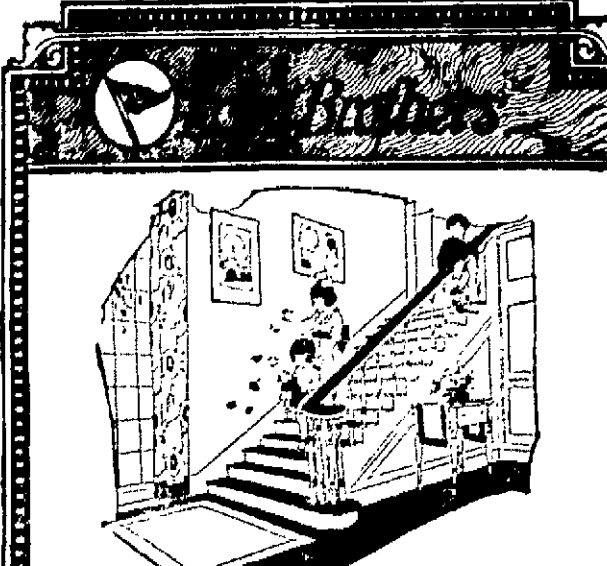

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.
